DEDICATION

The year 1950 causes us to pause and look back over the first half century. In so doing we dedicate this volume of the Jeffersonian to former students and graduates. Although Jefferson students have been making history for only a little over a quarter of a century, fond memories will live on for generations. The lasting contributions from our predecessors have indebted us. We dedicate this yearbook in gratitude to those who went before us and made it possible that we could enjoy the pleasures of the school they knew.

SENIOR WILL

We the class of "50" of the Jefferson High School, of the county of Adams, and of the State of Indiana being in a state not explainable by any living person after four years of hard labor in the school "ball and brawl" gang, do hereby make and publish our last will and testament in the presence of the persons we haven't as yet persuaded to stay and listen to it. Our bequests individually and collectively are as follows. TO WIT:

I, Eugene Wellman, will to David Whittredge my ability to get along with Miss Sprunger in English class, my good Department grades to Don Gerber.

I, Emma Lou Morningstar, will my sense of humor to Floreine Luginbill, my pep to Betty Wendel.

I, Carl Spangler, will to Gerald Miller, my ability to eat pretzels in Mr. Boller's classes without being caught and to Lyle Tumbleson, 20 pounds of my weight.

I, Emma Jean Switzer, will Betty Wendel and Patsy Johnson my job of counting the candy and ice cream each day, and to Donald Gerber my seat in the study hall.

I, Marion DeBolt, being of sound mind this January 6, 1950, will my ability not to be coaxed to do a good turn to Floreine Luginbill, and my car to any Junior boy who won't wreck it.

I, Colleen Kelly, will to the Junior class of 1950 positively nothing and hope that they get absolutely nowhere with it.

I, Bill Patterson, will my ability to make good grades and my good behavior in English class to David Whittredge, my quiet disposition to Anna Smitley and my A grades in History class to Patsy Johnson.

I, Melody Kuhn, will Norman Haines some of my height, my glasses to Anna Smitley, and my typing paper to Darrel Kuhn.

I, Wayne Gerber, will some of my freckles to Ruth Lehman and my ability to behave in English class to my brother.

I, Miriam Weaver, will my backless seat in English class to Lyle Tumbleson to either repair it or to become sway back from sitting in it.

I, Bryce Christy, will my ability in Physics to Ruth Lehman and my ability to get along with Junior girls to Norman Haines.

I, Alice Myers, will my typing ability to Norman Haines and my ability to be late to class and not be counted tardy to any member of the Junior class who can get by with it.

I, Melvin Wall, will my ability to drive on a basketball floor to Miller and my front seat in English to David Whittredge.

I, Martha Bailey, will my good Government and Department grades to Patsy Johnson, and my sense of humor to anyone who needs it.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of "38" Bryce, Martha, Emma Lou, Melvin, and Marion started their long journey through school together at Jefferson while Carl, Colleen, Miriam, Melody, and Bill endeavored to start at New Corydon, Eugene, Alice, Wayne and Emma Jean each attended a different school.

Learning enough, and doing our share of damage in the grades we entered high school in '46.

By the time we were Freshmen our group had enlarged to nineteen. Between hayrides and school work only thirteen recuperated enough during the summer to enter the Sophomore year.

In our Junior year we gained one member and proved to be very industrious by sponsoring the Fall Festival and presenting the play "DIZZY AND DAFFY." We climaxed the year with the Jr. and Sr. reception.

Now as the Senior Class of 1950 we feel that it is a great honor to be graduating in the half-century. Many great events are predicted for the next fifty years which we shall witness. We shall endeavor to do our part in the promotion of things worth while in this age of progress

We chose for our President Colleen Kelly; Vice President, Marion DeBolt; Secretary, Martha Bailey; and Treasurer, Alice Myers. We are proud of the fact that 6 of our 7 boys are varsity members and Alice serves as varsity cheerleader.

On December 22nd and 23rd we presented the play "BOLTS AND NUTS," also on February 7, we sponsored a chili supper. These were but two of our many activities.

As this school year comes to a close we all remember the happy days we spent here and leave with this thought; "May the other classes of J. H. S. have as many happy days as we have had."

Row 2: Gerald M. Miller, Anna Smitley, Lyle Tumbleson, Betty Wendel,
David Whittredge

CLASS HISTORY

The teachers were wringing their hands and saying, "What did we do to deserve this?" when they found they had 11 ambitious Juniors all ready to live up to their name, "Jolly," and also ready to give them a chase.

One teacher seemed to get more than his share when he, Mr. Boller, was appointed class sponsor.

The Juniors proved to be very business-like and elected these officers: Darrel Kuhn, Pres., Patsy Johnson, Vice Pres., Anna Smitley, Sec., and Floreine Luginbill, Treas.

The Juniors representing their class in basketball and softball were: Gerald Miller, Darrel Kuhn, Lyle Tumbleson, Norman Haines and David Whittredge. Betty Wendel served as cheerleader.

Other members of the Junior Class are Ruth Lehman and Donald Gerber.

The Junior Fall Festival made history for the class this year and they are now in the process of selecting and presenting a play.

JUNIOR PROPHECY

While on business in Chicago, in 1960, I registered at the luxurious Patwell Hotel. While browsing through the library, I came upon a book entitled "Patwell History." To my amazement, I found that the owners were none other than Bill Patterson and Eugene Wellman. That evening before retiring, I managed to have a chat with them and was informed that Bryce Christy was also making his home in Chicago. The next morning I decided to pay him a short visit before leaving for my home again in Oakland, California. I was greeted at the door by an attractive young lady whom I supposed was his wife but soon learned that he was still single and she was only his secretary.

Little did I realize that my trip home would be so interesting. When I stopped at a filling station in the outskirts of Omaha, Nebraska, I was amazed to see Carl Spangler standing in the doorway. He serviced my car and also invited me in for a friendly chat with his wife, the former Miss Colleen Kelly. She told me that Martha Bailey and Emma Jean Switzer were co-owners of a ritzy dress shop, "THE MARJEAN" in New York City.

Having spent more time than I expected there, it was soon time to stop for lunch. I decided to stop at the Belleview Cafe, and was pleased to meet the owner, Marion DeBolt. I complimented him on the delicious food and he told me it had been prepared by his finacee, Miriam Weaver.

While driving through Denver Colorado, I saw the magnificent Evangelical United Brethren Church. It was my luck to be passing just as Melvin and Melody were coming out the door. It was obvious that the "knot" had just been tied. They were both smiling and looked even happier than I had remembered them in my school days.

As I was watching television in the home of one of my relatives, where I was staying for the week-end, I was surprised to see the familiar face of Emma Lou Morningstar appear on the screen. She was going to sing her latest hit tune, "Win My Heart and You've Got My Mother, Too."

As I continued my journey homeward and was driving through Salt Lake City, Utah, I suddenly had to apply my brakes to keep from hitting a jaywalker, whom I immediately recognized as Alice Myers. No cars being near, I stopped and talked with her for a few minutes. She told me that she was now a star in motion pictures. I noticed that she mentioned the name Wayne quite often so I asked her who he was and she told me that it was Wayne Gerber and that he was to star with her in her next picture.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of forty-nine, nine Sophomores entered good old J. H. S. to further their education and enjoy themselves to the greatest extent.

The group chose Jack Wendel as their president, Gerald R. Miller vice president and Larry Miller as secretary-treasurer.

As is the Sophomores' duty we initiated the Freshman. The class held a class party at the school house in October.

Our class is very well represented on the basketball team. Jack Wendel is a substitute for the varsity team.

Mr. Claren Neuenschwander is the class sponsor.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Row 1: Donald Charleston, Glen Gerber, Earl Johnson, Patty Kelly, Barbara Lehman, Imogene Miller

Row 2: James Patch, Mary Rhodes, Richard Stuber, Robert Switzer, Sharon Teeple, Francis Wellman

ABSENT: Saloma Hilty, Christian Wickey

CLASS HISTORY

In "49" a group of fourteen green Freshmen elected Robert Switzer as president, Richard Stuber as vice president, and Juanita Rhodes treasurer and secretary. When Juanita moved to Geneva the office position was transferred to Barbara Lehman. Mrs. Davis was our class sponsor during this year.

We're proud of our six Freshman boys who are out for basketball. They are: Bob Switzer, Francis Wellman, Dick Stuber, Earl Johnson, Jim Patch, and Donald Charleston (who is the first team student manager).

Our initiation day was a great success. The Hartford softball team thought us quite absurd. The end of the initiation day was celebrated with a hay ride sponsored by the sophomore class.

On the night of Jefferson's Junior Fall Festival our class was honored when Patty Kelly was crowned queen.

JUNIOR HIGH HISTORY

The Junior High is getting ready for its High School year. We are proud to say that there are 43 students in the Junior High.

The first class meeting was called by our sponsor, Mr. Snyder. The following students were elected to take care of our future business: President, Norman Wall; Vice President, Alice Stuber; Secretary, Jerry Mae Smitley; Treasurers, Audrey Kuhn and Marilyn Charleston.

Our first party was a hayride followed by a weiner roast at the schoolhouse on October 7, 1949.

We also had a basketball team entered in the Junior High League in the county.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

1. Book lists—teachers must think we're going to study this year.
6. Freshmen as well as Seniors showed up first day of school.
7. Election of class officers.
8. We still can't remember our schedule; we will sometime!
9. Played Monmouth in softball—anyone remember the score?
12. Don't tear the desks up yet! We still have plenty of school ahead of us.
13. Jrs. and Srs. depart to "battle grounds" (class meetings).
16. Softball game with Monmouth; our first victory. Betty and Alice were chosen as cheerleaders.
20. What was Melody doing outside the Christian church at Portland? Ask any senior.
21. Magazine salesman meets with Seniors.
22. Hunt's Studio showed Seniors picture samples.
23. What's this? Glen Gerber kissing 7th grade girls on the bus? Freshman initiation. Softball game with Hartford, score? we forgot!
26. First P. T. A. meeting.
28. Representative from Cron Studio interviews Seniors. Game with Adams Central. We won 8-6.
30. Played Hartford. Mr. Neuenschwander gives "short" Government test. Was it "SHORT"?

OCTOBER

3. First basketball practice underway.
4. Underclassmen and teachers have peace; Seniors are going for annual ads. "Louie" fell for Carl.
5. Seniors still out of the "cage." Entire school had pictures taken---probably keep the rats away.
6. Deryll's Studio interviews Seniors. 1, 9 and 10 get T. B. Patch Test.
7. Seniors out for annual ads again. Jr. High has hayride and party at the school.
10. P. T. A. meeting.
11. Freshmen class party at the school house.
12. School dismissed at noon so we could attend the Decatur fair.
14. Seniors voted to have class pictures taken at Hunt's Studio.
17. I wonder, does Myers really like office work or is it the office boy she's after?
18. Freshmen girls tried out their gymnastics at Berne today. High school girls found them a new Romeo today. How about that Francis?
19. First period cards issued.
20. Freshmen take field trip.
24. Another week's work ahead.
25. Men started working on track and ball diamond.

26. Rev. Gehman here for first chapel service.
27. Teacher's Institute.
28. Teacher's Institute and Junior Fall Festival; Patty Kelly was crowned queen.
31. Senior play books arrive and parts are handed out.

NOVEMBER

1. School house raided, shoe strings and beans missing.
2. Chapel with Rev. Krehbiel as speaker.
8. First basketball game with Wren; good game boys. Second team was successful.
9. Rev. Schmidt was here for chapel.
14. Brave nimrods back in school—for a while!
15. Second basketball game. We won over Poling 58-38.
16. Rev. Schmucker was chapel speaker. Second six-weeks' tests start—so soon?
17. Mr. Snyder at Columbia City. When the cat's away the mice will play. Surprised Adams Central; defeated them 39-37.
18. Still rejoicing over last nights' victory. English students give pep talks.
21. I wonder if the blackboard is cold to the nose? Anyone interested ask Paul Stolz.
22. Did separating the rows of Freshmen and Seniors in first period study halls do any good?? Defeated Bryant Owls.
23. Johnny: "Why don't you go home, Jimmy?"
Jimmy. (Lingering at school) "I'm afraid to, I just received my report card."
24. King Turkey reigned supreme—on the dinner table that is!
28. The stage made its first appearance. I smell a play "cookin".
29. Who is the lover boy Anna got a note from??
30. If three frogs were sitting on a log, and one took a notion to jump in the river how many were left? (Answer December 5)

DECEMBER

1. A new romance; Keller how's Jerry Mae?
2. Defeated by Geneva—score?? Forget it! Did you have a nice time after the game, Floreine?
5. Three—he just TOOK a notion to jump in—but didn't do it.
7. Kelly has her arms around the Senior boys—girls too. Seniors measured for caps and gowns. Rev. Walters and an evangelist here for chapel. Name cards arrive.
8. BEWARE! Senior candy salesmen on hunt of a thief.
9. Downed by Pleasant Mills 43-39.
12. P. T. A. Santa Claus appears.
13. Thrill! Thrill! Jr. Class rings arrive. Defeated by Wren, Ohio. Pep up boys, we want some wins.
14. Rev. Shepherd chapel speaker.
15. Lady: In restaurant looking over menu) "Do you serve crabs?"
Waiter: "We serve anyone. Please be seated."

16. Defeated by Petroleum 72-47.
19. What caused the bench to break in Gov't. class? Could be too many Juniors on it!
20. Victory once again over Madison 58-29.
21. Rev. Statler chapel speaker. Everyone is being good—Christmas is near.
22. Broadway here we come! Senior play "Bolts and Nuts."
23. Christmas program and treat. Sr. play.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

See you next year, everybody!

JANUARY

3. Back from vacation and ready to work some more.
4. Sr. class dead; no Patterson & Wellman to tell jokes nor Spangler to giggle half-hour later.
5. Are your brains in order? They'd better be, 'cause Semester exams are here.
6. Ball game with Hartford cancelled due to high water—County Tourney tickets go on sale.
9. P. T. A. meeting.
10. New cameras are needed at Hunt's Studio. Why? Seniors had their pictures taken.
11. Third six weeks grade cards handed out. Are you still alive?
12. First session of County Tourney. Hartford won from us. The boys just couldn't make enough baskets.
13. Consolation game with Central. No use in making them cry, so we let them win.
14. Commodores lucky champs of the county. Seniors received their proofs. No one has seen a rat since.
16. Another one of those sleepy Mondays.
17. Mr. Neuenschwander very graciously gives the Economics class a test.
18. David, why were you so mad in 11 and 12 Literature Class? Rev. Carter was here for chapel.
19. Plans under way for the Seniors' Chili Supper.
20. End of another week. Be ready to start all over Monday.
21. Game with Alumni. Score 43-35. Nice game fellows.
23. Glen, Patch, Whittredge and Don did you have fun going up and down stairs? You should've known better than to skip Phys. Ed.
24. Principals' meeting. Ball game with Gray. We're sailing now—39-33.
25. Rev. Gilander here for chapel and showed us some Japanese articles.
26. The boys are still using the stairs.
27. Dennis Norman has a conference with the Senior Class.
28. Ball game with Madison 49-50. Tough luck.
30. A few Seniors blew up. Wonder why??
31. Game with Bryant—Score 48-33. We won once more. Rev. Wilkins and Rev. and Mrs. Phillips were here and taught a new way to do arithmetic.

FEBRUARY

2. Music class journeyed to the Geneva Farmers Institute.
3. Seniors get a "bang" out of a class meeting. Ball game with Commies 67-24. Something must have been wrong.
6. High school students have chests X-rayed at Geneva.
7. Sr. Chili Supper. Quite a performance.
8. Was the note Peggy Teeple gave "Butch" Wall for him or his sister??
9. Chili and hot dogs served for dinner and almost roasted "ham" from DeBolt's legs!
10. Rev. Gehman and Rev. Clough were here for special chapel service.
11. Senior girls go to the County Tea. Ball game with Twelve Mile. Something sure went haywire! 53-20.
13. P. T. A. meeting.
14. Ball game with Hartford 40-41. Tough. Kids from New Corydon lucky again.
15. Rev. Tauber speaker for chapel service.
17. Last ball game of the season with Pleasant Mills, 52-44. Victory!
20. Patch was lucky he drew a car! How did you like it Mr. Snyder?
21. New jackets appear in school. Seniors seem to be happy.
- 23-24-25. Sectional won by Yellow Jackets.

MARCH

1. Why are all the 7th and 8th graders having to stay in at noon?
6. Mrs. Marhenke teaches during Miss Sprunger's absence.
8. Melvin how do you like your teaching job?
13. P. T. A. meeting and carry-in-supper for basketball boys.
28. Jr. Class sponsors Hoosier Corn Huskers at Berne Auditorium.
30. Where were the various tunes coming from in Activities period?

APRIL

10. P. T. A. meeting.
12. County Music Festival at Monmouth.
14. County Music Festival at Geneva. Quite a work out!
21. Freshman Class party.
- 27-28. Senior exams appear on the scene.

MAY

- 4-5. Final exams for undergrads.
7. Baccalaureate. Rev. Marshall Weaver, speaker.
8. Commencement. Seniors make their departure. Rev. Worthman, speaker.
9. Last grade cards of the year handed out. Seniors leave on their trip. New York and Washington, D. C., here we come.

SO LONG

JOKES

Norman: "I had a fall last night that left me unconscious for 6 hours."

Patsy: "Good gosh, where did you fall?"

Norman: "Asleep."

Policeman: "I thought you were put in jail to serve a life term."

Prisoner: "I was, but my term is up."

Teacher: "When your eyes grow tired you should look at something green to rest them."

Student: "Why sure, that's why I've been looking at you."

(Taken from 1922 Jeffersonian.)

Don: "I sure had tough luck. My clover grew very short."

David: "Don't feel bad, I had to lather mine to mow it."

Reporter: "Are you the bridegroom?"

Usher: "I should say not. I was eliminated in the semi-finals."

Jeff: "So you think I ought to put on more weight?"

Mutt: "I certainly do. When you drink tomato juice you look just like a thermometer."

Truth?

Breathing through the nose is good for the health and also tends to keep you out of trouble by keeping your mouth shut.

They sure can be nice.

A tired husband was greeted by his wife as he came home from work.

"Darling sit right down. Here are your slippers and the paper."

"Okay, Honey. Let's see the new hat."

Mourner: "Yes I'm 93 myself."

Undertaker: "Well, we run a very genteel and sympathetic establishment here, why do you bother to go home?"

Tweet: "My wife dreamed last night she was married to a millionaire."

Twit: "You're in luck. That's what my wife thinks in the day time."

Mr. Weaver: "So you desire to become my son-in-law."

Marion: "No, but if I marry your daughter I don't see how I can get out of it."

No Cash Value.

He had a heart of gold, a laugh of silver, and a mine of information, she had ruby lips, teeth of pearl. Between them, they had 14 cents.

JOKES

Topics of the day—

Maid—"All the guests came in beautiful cars and wore gorgeous clothes and the most wonderful jewelry."

Cook—"Gracious, what did they talk about?"

Maid—"Us."

The modern way—

Buffum—"How can I cure my brother George of snoring?"

Scuffum—"It's easy—use kindness, co-operation, tact, and stuff an old sock in his mouth."

What a let down—

Clerk—"Is the fountain pen a birthday surprise for your son?"

Customer—"I'll say it is—he's expecting a convertible coupe."

Mel—"Since I met you I can't eat or drink."

Lil—"Gracious, why not?"

Mel—"I'm broke."

Lil—"Oh, well, you can't use any egg until it's broke."

Splendid career—

Perkins—"I feel I am fitted for big things. I'd like a position with five thousand men under me."

Gherkins—"Fine, dear boy—why not a job mowing grass in a cemetery?"

Advice—

Poke—"What a doctor! He told me to bury myself in my work."

Moke—"Well, what's wrong with that?"

Poke—"I'm a concrete mixer."

Stranger—"Only twelve o'clock? I thought it was more than that."

Native—"Around here, stranger, that's all it ever gets. Then we start over."

Henry—"Hurry up, dear, or we'll be late."

Henrietta—"Now quit fussing, Henry—I've been telling you for the last half hour I'd be ready in a minute."

Young Mother—"Why so gloomy?"

Young Father—"I was just thinking—here we spend a year trying to get the baby to talk, and the next twenty trying to get her to shut up."

MEMOIRS

(All quotations taken from the first copy of the Jeffersonian, printed in 1922.)

From this relic the staff of this present Jeffersonian found some very enlightening facts. One was the article that told us about the location of the High School. "The building is located in the exact middle of the township on a plot of ground containing 2½ acres. The general contract, heating and ventilating, electrical wiring, plumbing and light plant totaled $46,079.12."

We were amazed when we recognized some familiar names located in the Freshman enrollment. Wilma Snoke Stolz and Orison Stolz were listed. Jefferson has been an instigator in many things, hasn't it? Going on we found more familiar names in the grades. There were forty-six students in the first two grades, among them were Therman Charleston, Blaine Bailey, and Herbert Miller. Trailing by one, the third and fourth with their forty-five students embarked on the educational road. Vera Anspaugh Kelly and Chester Adams were among the third graders.

Called the "Overflow," grades five and six had thirty-eight on the roll. Cecil Smitley and Walter Amstutz were members of this group.

The seventh and eighth grades had some interesting characters too. Chalmer Smitley was one.

It was amazing to see that Jefferson in "22" was taking part in activities. A Parent-Teachers organization was working. "The meetings were held every two weeks, and it is safe to say that over 150 people were present at every meeting."

Not to be outdone in athletics either, the high school had both girls and boys entered in the county tournament.

In the field of music, we found a Jefferson Center Orchestra with a membership of thirty-two.

The annual contained jokes, poems, and advertising in addition to the things mentioned. We believe the school had reason to be justly proud of their production in "22", and we have endeavored to make our production this year one the school and community can be proud of.

JOKES

Really??

Men talk just as much as women, but with this one difference: women all chatter at the same time and apparently none misses a word anyone else has said. Men can't do this trick—they have to take turns.

Only men say it—

If a man reaches into a hat and pulls out a rabbit, it's magic. If a woman reaches into her handbag for a door key and pulls out a door key, it's a miracle.

Small shave—

Ma—"Really, I'm worried about Junior's arithmetic. He told me that 7 and 4 make 12."

Pa—"Well, I think that's good for a little shaver—he only missed it by 2."

Tastes will differ—

"The bride chose a gown of white marquisette over satin with a high neckline, off the shoulder yoke, finished with chantilly lace, a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves coming to a point at the skirt and a full hoop wrist." (Taken from a newspaper misprint.)

Examiner—"Now, soldier, what was the heaviest you ever weighed and the lightest?"

Soldier—"About 165 was the heaviest, and 7 pounds 9 ounces the lightest."
